alter state

is an international platform bringing together women from around the globe to learn and collaborate with each other as we make breakthrough ideas and change society as we know it.

This is a career development engine and a hyper diverse community focused on issues that matter, solving them in focused sprints one step at a time.

We connect, invent, continuously gain new skills and create practical solutions to become altered and evolved versions of ourselves as women innovators, supported by world renowned mentors along the way.

ONLINE WOMEN INNOVATION SPRINT

Taking multiple teams through the process of idea development, prototype building & testing, business model development and sales pitch. Intensive methodology training and mentoring throughout.

Social Development Goals are at the core of this programme. All participant projects and ideas will be dedicated to solving one challenge at a time.

We focus on STEAM education which helps women to develop skills related to innovation development.

CHOOSE YOUR ROLE

Be the IDEA OWNER

You are on a mission.
To remake, recreate and revive
a society that is broken.

You have a challenge that if solved could transform our day to day reality to an ALTER
STATE.

It is a fundamental issue in the way that we live, work,
educate, inform, travel, use food or energy, communicate or manage wellbeing.

Be the IDEA MAKER

You are probably already involved in the innovation world or you are just about to take the first steps.

You are a strategist, creative or a developer and you're good at what you do. You're here to challenge yourself, amplify what you know and alter your brain.

You cannot wait to help and collaborate with others because you know that change does not happen in isolation.

Be the NORTH STAR

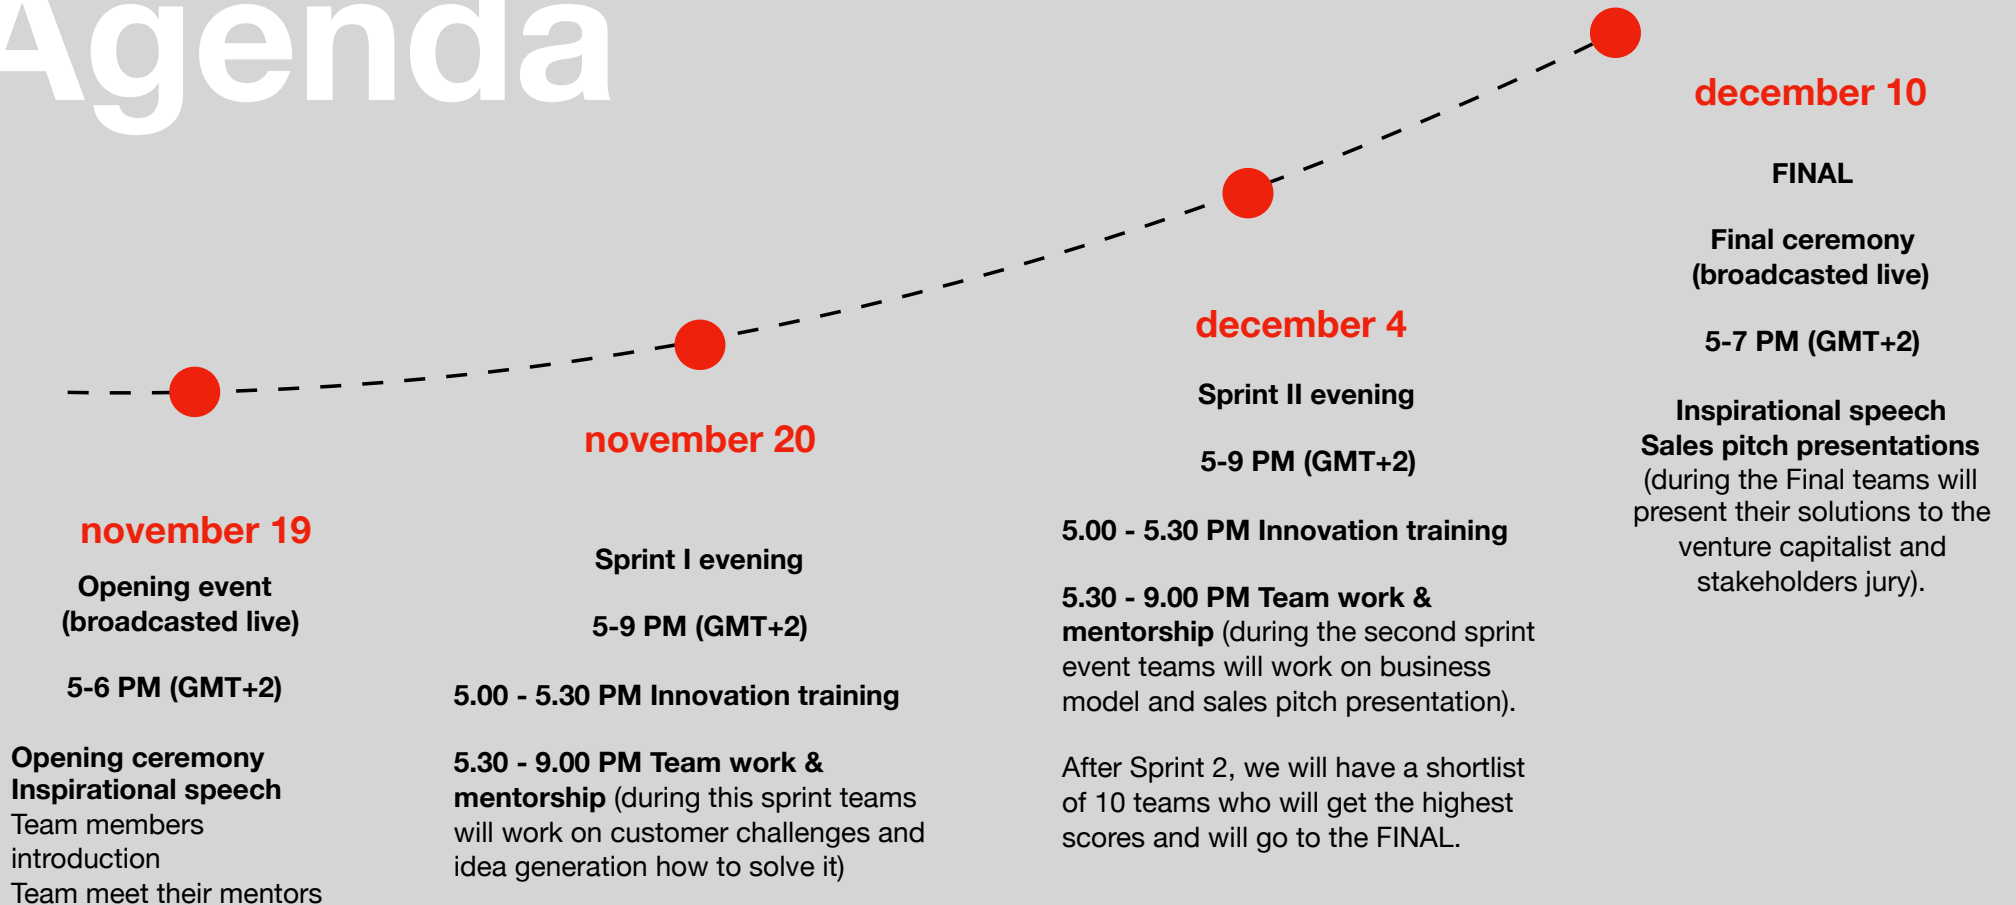

You are an expert in your field.
Or maybe even two. You are fundamentally a feminist and you want to enable women to thrive in the STEM world.

You are keen to be a TEAM MENTOR, responsible for guiding the development process of 1-3 teams or you want to become a SKILL MENTOR - supporting a team with a specific problem or need.
